This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

ASPINWALL NOTARIAL RECORDS.

THIS volume contains the notarial records of William Aspinwall, Recorder of the Suffolk County Court from November 13, 1644, until October $\frac{14}{23}$, 1651.

He was the second to hold the office, the first being Stephen Winthrop, the fourth son of Gov. John Winthrop, who was Recorder from September 9, 1639 (being appointed by order of the General Court), until the choice of William Aspinwall, November 13, 1644, at a General Court of Election.

The following account of William Aspinwall was compiled by the late John T. Hassam, and forms part of the introduction to Liber X. of Suffolk Deeds, and by whose kind permission it is here republished.

It should be borne in mind that, according to the Julian calendar, which was in use at the time, the legal year began on the 25th of March, so that the date of the first entry in the records is November 20, 1644.

WILLIAM ASPINWALL.

William Aspinwall probably came in the fleet with Governor Winthrop. He was of Charlestown[1] in 1630, and of Boston after 1633. His name is the tenth in the list of original members of the First Church in Boston[2] the covenant being dated Charlestown, August 27, 1630. His wife Elizabeth was the sixteenth in that list. He was the second in the list of thirteen who remained inhabitants in Charlestown in 1630. September 28, 1630, he was one of the jury impanelled to inquire concerning the death at "Mr Cradocks plantacon" of Austin Bratcher.[1] He took the oath of freeman[2] April 3, 1632.

He was one of the Selectmen of Boston[3] in 1636 and 1637, and was chosen deputy to the General Court[4] in 1637 in place of Sir Henry Vane; but as he was a supporter of Wheelwright in the "Antinomian Controversy,"[5] and had signed a remonstrance in his favor, the Court deposed him from membership by the following order,[6] passed November 2, 1637: —

"Mr William Aspinwall being questioned in regard his hand was to a petition or remonstrance, & he iustified the same, maintaining it to bee lawfull; the Court did discharge him from being a member thereof."

By the following order[7] of the same date he was disfranchised and banished: —

"Mr Willi: Aspinwall being convented for haveing his hand to a petition or remonstrance, being a seditious libell, & iustifiing the same, for wch, & for his insolent & turbulent carriage, hee is disfranchized & banished, puting in sureties for his departure before the end of the first month next ensuing.

"Mr John Glover & Mr Aspinwall are each of them bound in a 100li a peece for Mr Aspinwals depture by the time limited."

With others, "seduced & led into dangerous errors" by the "opinions & revelations of Mr Wheelewright & Mrs Hutchinson," he was disarmed by an order[1] of the General Court of November 20, 1637.

With others of "ye opinionists," thus disarmed, disfranchised, and banished, he joined in the movement to found a new colony in Rhode Island, and he was one of those who, on the 7th day of the 1st month, 1638, "solemnly in the presence of Jehovah," incorporated themselves "into a Bodie Politick"[2] signing the compact at Portsmouth, Rhode Island. He was the first Secretary of the infant Colony.

But his life in Rhode Island was not destined to be a peaceful one, as the following order,[3] passed 7th 12mo 1638–9, shows: —

"Mr. Aspinwall being a suspected person for sedition against the State, it was thought meet that a stay of the building of his Bote should be made; whereupon ye workman was forbidden to proceed any further."

And on the 28th 2mo 1639, his shallop was attached for debt.[4]

He was in Connecticut in 1642, and was a witness in the case of George Spencer[5] at a General Court held at New Haven, March 2, 1641–2.

At a General Court held at Boston, October 7, 1641, the following order[6] was passed: —

"Willi: Aspinwall hath a safe conduct granted him to come & satisfy the counsell, &, if they thinke meete, to stay till the Generall Court; if not, hee is to depart till the Generall Court, & then hee hath liberty to come to the Genrall Court."

At a General Court held at Boston May 20, 1642, the following order[1] was passed: —

"William Aspinwall, upon his petition & cirtifficat of his good carriage, is restored againe to his former liberty & freedome."

Governor Winthrop,[2] under date of March 27, 1642, gives this account of it:—

"Mr. William Aspenwall, who had been banished, as is before declared, for joining with Mr. Wheelwright, being licensed by the general court to come and tender his submission, &c was this day reconciled to the church of Boston. He made a very free and full acknowledgment of his errour and seducement, and that with much detestation of his sin. The like he did after, before the magistrates, who were appointed by the court to take his submission, and upon their certificate thereof at the next general court, his sentence of banishment was released."

Having made his peace with the Massachusetts authorities, his advancement was rapid. At a General Court of Election held in Boston, September 7, 1643,—

"Mr Willi: Aspinwall is appointed clarke of the writts for Boston."[3]

At a General Court of Election held in Boston, November 13, 1644, —

"Mr. Aspinwall is chosen Recorder till ye next Cort of Election;"[4] and on the same day —

"It is ordered, yt Mr Willi: Aspinwall shalbe a publique notary for this iurisdiction."[5]

He joined the Artillery Company[1] in 1643.

The merchants of Boston, attempting to secure a monopoly of the Indian trade, procured a charter from the General Court.[2] This was granted March 7, 1643–4, in answer to the petition of William Aspinwall and six others. Governor Winthrop's account is as follows: —

"Divers of the merchants of Boston being desirous to discover the great lake, supposing it to lie in the north west part of our patent, and finding that the great trade of beaver which came to all the eastern and southern parts, came from thence, petitioned the court to be a company for that design, and to have the trade which they should discover, to themselves for twenty-one years. The court was very unwilling to grant any monopoly, but perceiving that without it they would not proceed, granted their desire; whereupon, having also commission granted them under the public seal, and letters from the governour to the Dutch and Swedish governours, they sent out a pinnace well manned and furnished with provisions and trading stuff, which was to sail up Delaware river so high as they could go, and then some of the company, under the conduct of Mr. William Aspenwall, a good artist, and one who had been in those parts, to pass by small skiffs or canoes up the river so far as they could."[3]

But Aspinwall and his party were not allowed to penetrate to the beaver country, the Swedes firing upon them and the Dutch higher up the river refusing to allow them to pass.[4]

But more troubles were in store for him, for at the second session of the General Court held at Boston October 14, 1651, the following order[5] was passed: —

"In answer to the petiĉon of John Butten, Benjã Ward, Thomas Matson, Willjam Ludkin, and others of a jury appointed to serve in the last County Court held at Boston, in an accon betweene Mr Wm Aspinwall and John Witherden, the Courte doth order that Mr Aspinwall be convented before the whole Courte on the morrow, being 23 8m, 1651, to give answer to such things as are chardged vppon him in this and Witherdens peticon. The partjes appeared at the time appointed, and after the Court had fully heard the cawse, and what both partjes could say, the Court proceeded to judgmnt. Itt is ordered, that henceforth Mr Wm Aspinwall shall be suspended from excercising the office of recorder or clarke in any County Courte, for chardging the Courte and jury to goe against lawe and conscience, making the landlord to pay rent to the tennant, and shall pay the some of thirty shillings for the jurjes attendance and entring the peticon, wth fower shillings for two wittnesses attendance.

"Itt is ordered, that Mr Edward Rawson, present secretary to the Generall Courte, shall henceforth be recorder for the county of Suffolke, and that Mr Aspinwall deliuer him all the records belonging to the sajd county.

"Itt is ordered, that Jonathan Negus, at the request of the toune of Boston, shall henceforth be clarke of the writts for the toune of Boston, in Mr Aspinwalls roome, who is to give him the records of deaths, births, and marrjages, in his hands, yt belongs to that office."

At the second session of the General Court[1] held at Boston October 26, 1652,

"Mr Nathaniell Souther is appointed publicke notary for this jurisdiccon, in the roome of Mr Wm Aspinwall, and tooke the oath suiteable to the place in open Courte."

He addressed the following letter, dated 24: 5mo 1652, to the General Court:[2] — mortalium omnibus horis sapit.[1] And though it be my portion to suffer the more, for that I haue beene yor officer (most vnworthy I confesse) yet if ever occasion should be; be pleased to be tender of yor officers especially of their names & creditt & suffer them not to be objects of publick scorne & reproach. If they be godly or ingenuous an admonition or checke may suffice to redresse any thing weakly & foolishly done, but if they grow corrupt through bribes or otherwise vnfaithfull to theire trust, justice will require it to make them exemplary. ffor my selfe I haue little to say (being conscious of many weake & feeble passadges) only this, I haue desired to be faithfull, & my aime hath beene the Hono^r of God & his vice-gerents, the publick good of the Country, & private of pticular psons. In reference to yor late order giue me leave I beseech yo^w w^thout offence to giue yo^w an Account why I haue not delivered the bookes vnto the Secretary, but rather voluntarily chosen to leave them wth Mr Cotton.

"1. They are no publick Records, as I take it, nor can be; but privat Records of my owne Acts, of wch I could not otherwise be able at any time to giue Account, nor be able to discerne any corruption or adulteration that possibly might be foisted in after the writeings passe my hand, f[or] wch ends I thought it necessary to keepe such a Register. And I wanted not the advice of him herein, whom yo^w all will owne as a Nursing father to this Colonie whilst he lived.

"2^ndly Vnles it were the practise of other Nations so to doe, wch I believe it is not, according to that intelligence I haue had, it will reflect some imputation or suspition of vnfaithfulnes vppon me to take them away by an order; & that will weaken the Credit of the bookes themselves or any thing to be taken out of them. ffor such as is the Credit of the pson, such wilbe the creditt of his acts & bookes, & that is the Reason why the State & Goverment doe putt credit vppon the pson, by designeing him to such a Comon service, & therefore as they are carefull to choose such psons for that purpose as are qualifyed, & have variety of tongues (at least the Latin tongue) so specially they doe take care (or should) that they be faithfull, in whose truth men may confide.

"3^ly. It would be prejudiciall both to my selfe, & all therein concerned to take them away. ffor no man can safely & effectually attest any thing out of my privat writeings but my selfe, nor shall I be able to attest any thing when my bookes are taken away.

"4^ly. Very many things therein, for brevity sake, are registred in such a method, wch none but my selfe or by instructions from me can make vse of; they being intended for my privat vse, & my owne voluntary act w^t^hout instructions or injunctions from the Generall Court.

"5^ly.^ The most of the things therein conteined relate to England whither I am going, & hope may be of more use there, both to the Country & any pticular therein concerned; intending the Lord pmitting to make my residence in or about London, where any may haue easie Recourse for my attest.

"6^ly.^ The bookes are mine owne, bought at my owne chardge, & the Register therein my owne voluntary & handy worke, and as proply mine as any thing I possesse is mine. These things considered I did resolve (before yor order) & not w^th^out advice of some that knew the practise & custome of other places to take my bookes wth mee, concluding this wth my selfe, that as I haue beene & am, so through the help of Christ I shall remaine cordially affected & tenderly carefull of the good & welfare of his Israel as any opportunity of Providence shall present. But lest I should be grievous or offensiue to yo^w^ whom I loue and honour, I haue determined to leave them in the hands of Mr Cotton, vppon promise of the Speciall Court, & confidence of yor approbation, that there they shall remaine vntill yo^w^ may vnderstand from Mr Winslow what is vsuall to be done in such cases of death or removal of Notary into another Country. By this Accomodation yor ends are attained, that any who haue occasion may haue copies of any writeing by Mr Rawson, if he please hither to repaire, or if yo^w^ judge it vseful and necessary, yo^w^ may appoint them to be transscribed & returne me mine if advise so guide.

REGISTRY DEPARTMENT

OF THE

CITY OF BOSTON

RECORDS RELATING TO THE EARLY HISTORY OF BOSTON

(Formerly called Record Commissioners' Reports)

This volume, which is the thirty-second in the series of Boston Records, contains the notarial records of William Aspinwall from 1644 to 1651 inclusive. The work was commenced by William H. Whitmore, Esq., late Registrar of Boston, and completed with the valuable assistance of Mr. Walter K. Watkins, the well-known genealogist.

EDWARD W. McGLENEN,
City Registrar.

LIBRARY OF THE BOSTON ATHENÆUM,
BOSTON, February, 3, 1903.

MY DEAR MR. MCGLENEN:

On November 13, 1854, the Trustees of the Athenæum passed a vote of thanks to E. Price Greenleaf, Esq., for his gift to the Library of twenty-nine valuable historical manuscripts. No list of these can be found, but the collection probably included the Aspinwall Notarial Book, which was given by him, as shown by the book-plate, the notarial records of Samuel Tyley (April 2, 1731, to February 28, 1743–4), of Ezekiel Goldthwait (December 2, 1748, to March 11, 1754), and of Goldthwait's cousin Ezekiel Price (June 1, 1754, to April 25, 1775, and irregularly to August 22, 1780). They were inherited by Mr. Greenleaf from his grandfather, Hon. Ezekiel Price.[1]

Price was a patriotic public man, a shipping and insurance broker, and notary, whose office afforded a meeting place for the prominent men of Boston for half a century. Public and private records, brought together in those unsettled times, would there find a convenient resting place either for temporary use or for permanent preservation; in days past officials upon their retirement not infrequently carried their manuscript records with them.[2] Price acquired many papers while notary public, a justice of the peace, and a selectman of Boston, but especially as confidential secretary to Governors Shirley, Pownal, and Bernard, as deputy for the Vice-Admiralty Court, and as Clerk of the Courts of Sessions and of Common Pleas for Suffolk County. From time to time he gave manuscripts to the Massachusetts Historical Society, of which he was a member; he also republished a sermon on his great grandfather, Ezekiel Cheever, the schoolmaster, and in other ways showed an interest in antiquarian matters. At his death, in 1802, his "small library of books" was left by will to be divided equally between his grandsons, Thomas and Ezekiel Price Greenleaf. (Suffolk Wills, Lib. C., 331). His manuscripts probably fell to Price Greenleaf upon the fulfilment of this provision of the will.

It is at present impossible to trace the history of the Aspinwall Notarial Book before it came into Price's hands. Aspinwall himself referred to it in 1650 (Book of Possessions, p. 54) as "my notaries booke." In a letter addressed to the General Court in 1652, Aspinwall said that he intended to leave his records with Mr. Cotton, "vntill yo^w may vnderstand from Mr Winslow what is vsuall to be done in such cases of death or removal of Notary into another Country." In a postscript he stated his willingness to turn over his records (although "no publick Records, as I take it, nor can be, but privat Records of my owne Acts") to be kept by Mr. Rawson, then Recorder for the County of Suffolk. Aspinwall's Book of Possessions was described as in the Secretary's office in 1670 (Suffolk Deeds, Lib. VII., 156), and in the Recorder's office in 1672 (Boston Record Comm. Reports, II., 161), but no mention is made of this First Notary's Book in the early Suffolk deeds; a third volume (see Suffolk Deeds, Lib. VIII., 187) and what appears to be a second volume (ibid., Lib. III., 45a) are there referred to. It would seem, therefore, that this record kept by Aspinwall remained in private keeping, and passed from hand to hand until Price received it.[1]

The book itself, by an outside measurement, is 10¾ inches high, 8¼ inches wide, and 2⅛ inches in thickness. The leather covers have three tooled lines near the edges and a diamond shaped ornament of gilt in the centre. Near the top in black are the letters "The Notaries first book Of Records." On the first page the autograph "Willm Aspinwall" occurs three times, twice followed by "Notr Publ." The paper has a watermark,[2] and if the design becomes a subject of study, we may at some future time learn whence came the sheets on which Aspinwall kept his records.

Very truly yours,

CHARLES KNOWLES BOLTON.

Edward Webster McGlenen, Esq.

[1] If Tyley obtained it in 1731 from some earlier notary, it may have passed to Goldthwait and from him to Price. Price's great uncle, Rev. Samuel Cheever, married Ruth Angier, and William Aspinwall's daughter Hannah married John Angier, but these facts throw no light on the history of the book.

[2] The watermark, which is armorial, may be thus described: On a shield surmounted by a crown, quarterly 1st and 4th, three antique crowns, 2 and 1; 2d and 3d, a lion rampant; and over all an escutcheon charged with what appears to be a quiver.

goods, there was not a spare man to doe anything to her rigging till she was neere laden, so that the ground of the shipps not being laden in time limited was no fault of the said willoughbyes but for want of men according to Charter party: And whereas the said Bourne in his answer said, that the shipp set sail the next day after the Protest, the said willoughby, doth acknowledge the same: but the said willoughby saith the said Bourne did it ōn purpose thinking to save himselfe cleare: when that he had not all his Pvision on board of beere and bread and fish till the sixth of September, and when it was done he lay till the nienth before he set saile, his Owners goeing downe either to feast or reckon and make over their Accounts on the eighth day. And whereas he saith, shipps use to have fourty eight houres to wood and water, the said willoughby saith, the shipp was laden compleatly before the said willoughby protested: And whereas he saith, the Bills of lading were not Psented till the Dayes were out, the said Willoughby could not take the bills till the shipp was laden, and the shipp was not laden till the dayes were out, but the ground was not in the said willoughby as the reasons above make it evident. This is the true answer which the said willoughby Psented to me in writeing with his owne hand the day and yeare above written. /

25 (8) 1647 Mr Thomas Alcocke, Loueing and kind brother my love remembered unto yo^{u} & my sister & all yor children hoping in God that yo^{u} are in good health as I & my children are at this present time now praised be the Lord for it. Brother the cause of my writeing to yo^{u} is this, I heard not from yo^{u} a greate while until m^{r} Richard Wright brought me newes that yo^{u} were well, but he could tell me nothing concerning my children wch is a great griefe unto mee. The parting from them was a great griefe unto mee wch brought me neere unto death but the Lord in mercy raised me up againe, blessed be the Lord for his mercie unto mee, But since m^{r} Wright came over & can tell me no newes from them, wch is a great griefe unto mee, & I am afraid that they are not well because it pleased God to take away my Brother out of this world before they were able to helpe themselves. wch makes mee the more fearefull that that they be not so looked unto as if it had pleased Almighty God that hee had lived, for then he would have beene a father to them by his pmise unto mee. Yet if they be wth any of his friends I hope they will use them well for his sake. Brother my love remembered unto Mrs Alcock & her children hoping in God that they are in good health the Lord revive his mercie unto them. And brother my earnest desire is that yo^{u} would be pleased to doe so much for mee as to send mee a tre from yo^{u} of them, & who they be wth, & what trade they be, I should be very glad to see yo^{u} or them if it might please God that it might be soe; if not, I must be content as well as God will give mee leave. Massachusetts in New England in America.

At a Court of Assistants holden at Boston the sixth day of the fourth month called June in the yeare of o^{r} Lord 1648 according to the Account of England.

The Companie of the Seaman belonging to the Shipp Planter of London, being therein the harbour at Boston aforesaid, brought an action as well against Robert Risbie Master of the s^{d} Ship, & Thomas Gainer Merch^{t} of the same, as against the shipp itselfe, for wages due to them for theire service done in the s^{d} shipp, for divers months then past: wch being matter of Account the Court appointed Auditors, vizt, Mr Duncan Auditor Generall, Mr Allen & Mr Addington to examine the Ships accounts &c., & to certifie the Court.

The returne accordingly was made as followeth, vizt, that there was due to the s^{d} Master Robert Risbie one hundred & eight pounds; To Mr Robert ffen one of his mates ninety one pounds: To Joshua Maid another of his mates fourty two pounds eight shillings: To Richard Holt Boatswaine fourty six pounds eight shillings: To John Carman Gunner fifty two pounds seven shillings: To Leonard Sergeant Chirurgeon fifty foure pounds & to the rest of the seamen according to theire severall pportions, amounting in all to seven hundred & eight pounds seven shillings & a penny. W^{ch} being given in evidence to the Jury, they found for the plaintiffs theire severall & respective wages, & costs of Court, & Judgment was entred accordingly, & Execution granted against the said Risbie & Gainer & the said

Shipp Planter. But because the said Risbie & Gainer had no visible estate in this jurisdiction wch might answer the Judgment, the Execution was laid uppon the said Shipp, wch by apprizall of three able & indifferent men, chosen according to lawe, was valued at seven hundred & thirty six pounds fourteene shillings, & at that rate shee was publikly offred to sale by the space of fourteene days or thereabouts

But none appearing to by her at that price, a motion was made by the s^d Shipps Companie at the Court held at Boston the 27th of the fifth month called July 1648. that the said ship might be putt uppon a new apprizall or delivered to the s^d plaintiefs in satisfaction of theire wages; wch was ordered accordingly; & being apprized by able & indifferent men the first of the sixth month called August 1648 at six hundred pounds, was sould by the Under marshall to Major Edward Gibons for fyve hundred & fifty pounds, because no man would give so much, supposeing her to be over valued. Where uppon by Authority of this Court the s^d sale of the s^d Ship Planter is allowed & ratifyed to be good & effectuall in Lawe, to the said major Gibons & his Assignes, & to his & theire pper use & behoofe, & the s^d fyve hundred & fifty pounds the pceed thereof, to be distributed to the s^d shipps companie, according to theire severall pportions, every of them giveing a receipt & acquittance for the same according to Lawe. In testimonie of the truth whereof I John winthrop Gov. of the Colonie aforesaid have hereunto sett my hand this 2. of the 11th month called January 1648.

This Bill was p^{r}sented unto mee this 5th of June 1649. p me Robt Sedgwicke. Accordingly at the request of s^{d} Rich: Clarke Assignee of Mr Benjamin Whetcombe I the Not. afores^{d} did repaire unto major Robt Sedgwick and in the name of the s^{d} Rich: Clarke & Benjamin Whetcombe his principall, did protest against the said Robt Sedgwick & Robt Houghton for non paym^{t} & Delivery of the s^{d} quantity of fish according to Bill, and for all Damages wch the s^{d} Rich: Clarke & Benjamin Whetcombe or either of them doe or shall suffer by reason thereof, for all wch I the Not. afores^{d} do by these p^{r}sents ptest that the s^{d} Robt Sedgwick & Robt Houghton or theire estates shalbe responsall, & lyable to make just & due reparations in time & place convenient. Thus done & passed in the towne called Charlestowne in New Engl the day & yeare first above written. Quod virtute officij &c:

Major Sedgwick's Answer. — In answ^{r} to a protest made by Mr Clarke for non performance of a bill of Exchange wch was for 200 Kint fish charged p Mr Robt Houghton uppon mee, I answer thus. When I came to the Ile of Shoales about the 12th of June 1649 I tould Mr Clarke I would satisfy & pay the 200 Kint of fish according to the contents thereof. And also knowing that there was fish due to him from others that I was jointly ingaged for, I tould him, what ever came of it, the first fish I put on board should bee in consideration of this bill, wch he pmised to accept of in that consideration. Now I haveing laded fish uppon severall accounts uppon the shipp Mr Clark was in, when I came to account, I first demanded up the s^{d} bill of 200 Kint, wch hee denyed, and would not let me have it, but forced me to discount the s^{d} 200 Kintalls upon another Account volens nolens, at that place, there being no power to compell.

John Parris of Charlestowne his true & lawful Att^{r}. irrevocable for him & in his name but to his owne pper use to aske &c of Peter Mudd or any other that have received the value of two thousand weight of Tobacco (being a debt due fro Capt Nicholas Phillips Comander of the Mercht ffrigot of London to the s^{d} Appearer). & of the receipt to give acquittance &c. as in other trs Att^{r}.

18 (5) $\frac{1650}{}$. Uppon the 18th day of the 5th month called July An^{o}. Dni 1650 according to the Acc^{o}. of England Before mee Wm Aspinwall &c: psonally appeared Thomas Lun of Boston in N.E. me^{r}. wch Appearer required me the s^{d} Notary for him & in his name to ptest against Mr Wm Greene Master of the good shipp called the Swallow of London for these reasons following; first for that he did not sett saile from Gravesend towards New Engl. uppon the 10th of March 1649 according to pmise, nor till nienteene dayes after, to wit, the nien & twentieth of the same. Secondly that he did not take into his ship all the goods of the s^{d} Lun according to pmise, notwthstanding he tooke in other merch^{ts} goods to whom he was not ingaged when first he pmised the s^{d} Thomas Lun to take in his goods, by reason whereof the s^{d} Tho. Lunne hath wanted time to pvide his Complem^{t} of fish, & for want of his s^{d} goods hath lost the opportunity of his Market. Uppon wch grounds & reasons & at the request of the s^{d} Tho. Lunne, I the Notary aforesaid doe ptest against yo^{u} m^{r} Wm Greene because yor ship did not set saile from Gravesend according to pmise, nor did take in all his goods according to yor engagement, that what soever Demorage or other Damage the s^{d} Lunne is lyable unto, yo^{u} the s^{d} m^{r} Greene are the cause thereof & shalbe justly liable to make him just & due separations in time & place convenient. Thus done & passed in the towne of Boston by me the s^{d} Notary. Quod: &:

Upon the reading of the w^{t}hin mentioned prot. m^{r} Wm Greene replyed 1. that he did not coven^{t} to set saile fro Gravesend by the 10 march as is p^{r}tended. 2^{ly} that when the s^{d} Th. Lun sent his goods aboard his ship, they were not rejected & therefore his protest is causles.

Whereas Capt Stanfast questions o^r power in putting in a Comander, wee doe deny any such power in o^r selvs, neither doe wee desire any such power, but leave that to him selfe.

And whereas he intends not to goe to London directly, o^r intent is not to hinder, neither he nor the shipp, nor both of them to goe whither he pleaseth, pvided that he payeth us here o^r wages that is due, and cleare us here.

ffurther whereas he demandeth three thousand pound security, we find the ship to be alreadie ingaged for o^r wages, further we have no need to hyre a ship, & therefore deny the giveing of any security.

And whereas yo^u injoyne us to take in such freight as shall present, pvided that he make the ship fitting to take in merch^ts goods, Sagnatea. July. 17. 1650.

Instructions for o^r dearly beloved friends Mr Stephen Painter, Mr Phillip Chaddocke, & Mr John Pearce for the pcureing & hyreing a ship, to come unto us, unto Sagnatea, to transport & carry o^r psons & goods thence.

1. Our request is to yo^u, (and we whose names subscribed, doe ordeine & authorise) o^r welbeloved friends Mr Stephen Painter, Mr Phillip Chaddock & Mr Jno Pierce or any two of yo^u to aske & enquire after a shipp of 200. tuns or there abouts, sound & able to undertake a winter voyage for England Hollond ffrance or els where, as incouragement inviteth.

2. When mett wth such a shipp, then to endevo^r to bargaine for & hyre that s^d shipp, to undertake & sett saile for Sagnatea, that Island whereon we now reside.

3. That, shall indevo^r to arrive wth us, in the harbo^r of Sagnatea by the last of November next.

4. That shall further bargaine & agree wth the Owners of that said shipp to take in a freight of wood; only from ffreighters or undertakers, (mentioned in the bond of pformance made & Delivered for the security of o^{r} friends above mentioned,) & from none els wthout the approbation of the s^{d} freighters & undertakers.

5. The s^{d} shipp to be agreed wth to carry & transport any such freighter as shalbe occasioned to goe in the ship wth his freight, unto the Port of Deliverance of the s^{d} ship. & uppon as easie termes as yo^{u} can agree.

6. If any of the freighters shalbe occasioned to goe to Bermudas, or to remove theire families hence, thither. that yo^{u} agree wth the owners of the shipp to that end, uppon so easie rates as yo^{u} conveniently can.

7. That yo^{u} shall not exceed to give ten pound p tun freight for England Holland or ffrance, nor fyve pound p head for passage.

8. That yo^{u} would be carefull to condition wth the Owners of the ship, that we the freighters may have all possible assistance of shipps Companie & boate for quick dispatch of the shipp uppon her voyage & the rather because of o^{r} want of boates to further the Designe.

not greater then Ourij, & in this case yo^{n} are to have sixty livers p tonne.

If you should not lade at Rochell then you are to goe for Burdeux & there take in yor ladeing of such goods as he shall put aboard yo^{n}

signeing bills for one hundd & twenty tonns at sixty livers p tonne.

If yo^{n} goe for Bassillonia wth yor goods he is to give yo^{n} the same freight as though yo^{n} went to Supdevecha & there to be cleared.

Have Speciall care to observe the days yo^{n} enter into yor ports & ptest assoone as the time is expired. yo^{n} are to have thirty lyvers p day demorage.

Now when yo^{n} have received yor freight make it us home by Exchang at the best rates the broakers will advise yo^{n}, yo^{n} are to receive the piece of eight at fifty eight souls & the Spanish pistoll for ten livers, but if in case yo^{n} trade to & fro wth the shipp & that yo^{n} put o^{r} moneys on the Grosse adventure then be sure allwayes what men yo^{n} deale wth & let insurance be made on the shipp from Port to Port, in as much as the shipp shalbe worth. & give us notice p every poste via Parris.

If yo^{n} take no freight then give us notice of it from the place where yo^{n} unlade that we may insure homeward on the shipp. be carefull of whom yo^{n} take yor bills that they be good. so that no dispute happen hereafter. & if in case yo^{n} lade salt to come home saile directly for the westcountry, but not for Plymouth if possible.

We doe expect an acc^{o} from yo^{n} of all things Yo^{r} men are paid the most pte of them to this day, be carefull to agree wth them, & feare God as becometh Christians. & thus praying the lord to protect or thereabouts, wch ⅓ pt of the s^d ship (the s^d John Jarvis doth say) he did peaceably & quietly enjoy certaine months wth out any Molestation, Isaac Addington being appointed m^r of the aboves^d ship in the M^o of July 1646 as the s^d John Jarvis saith, & was to pforme a voyage fro Boston in N. Eng: to Virginia, as he saith, & from there to London being the port of his discharge & to give Account of his trust unto each owner. And whereas the s^d Jo: Jarvis alledgeth that the s^d M^r hath not rendred unto him a just & true Account, & did in the month of August in the yeare 1647 at London undertake a second designe wth the above s^d ship unicorne, unto the Port of Malaga & so made his returne to the Port of London, & since hath imployed the aboves^d ship Unicorne uppon severall other Designes & made severall other Voyages wth the aboves^d ship unto severall other Ports w^thout the knowledg consent or privity of the s^d John Jarvis thereunto, as he saith. And whereas the s^d John Jarvis did in the month of July one thousand six hundd & fifty at Boston in N. Eng. in a peaceable way (as he saith) require the aboves^d Isaac Addington that he would give him a true & just Account of his ⅓ pt of the ship abovementioned in wch the s^d John Jarvis claimeth ppriety, as also of her imployments & improvements thereof from Port to Port, then three yeares compleat imployed p him the aboves^d Isaac Addington as M^r, of all wch time of her imployment, as likewise the improvements as afore expressed (the s^d John Jarvis saith) he hath not as yet given him a full & true Account. And whereas the s^d John Jarvis alledgeth, that he was (in the M^o. of Aug. 1650^tie.) constrained to psecute a suit against the afores^d Isaac Addington at the Court then held at Boston in N: Engl. for the recovering of what (he saith) is most jusly due unto him, either for the imployments & improvements of his ⅓ pt of the ship afores^d, as also what soev^r els due unto him uppon any other Acc^o. or Accounts, wch by no other way or means he could have, nor can yet attaine, as he affirmeth. Now whereas the s^d Jo: Jarvis alledgeth, that Isaac Addington & Capt John Leveret uppo above & ungrounded p^rtence alledged in the Court held at Boston afore expressed, and now uppon the same ground & like p^rtence alledgeth that the s^d Jo: Jarvis hath sould his ⅓ pt of the s^d ship, whereas (the s^d John Jarvis saith) there is no such thing, nor that it can any wayes be made by them so to appeare. Asp: Not. & Tabell. publ by Authority of the Gen^{r} Court of the Massachusetts admitted & sworne uppon the twelfth day of Decmb. 1650 did protest & (by expresse direction from the s^{d} John Jarvis & in his owne words in manner following) doe by these p^{r}sents ptest against Isaac Addington & Capt John Leveret theires heires Exec. Administr. & Assignes & every of them, for all sufferings losses & damages whatsoever, either by estate or credit, that the s^{d} John Jarvis have heretofore heretofore susteined or shall any way hereafter suffer, loose, or be damnifyed in by being kept as is afore expressed from either the one third pt of the shipp afores^{d} her imployment & all improvements pfitts & gaines whatsoever wch the s^{d} John Jarvis might or could any wayes have made thereof or hath beene any wayes made by her imployments, as also of what soever is any wayes due or shalbe made to appeare to be due from any of them, as likewise from any casualty whatsoever els the afores^{d} shipp Unicorne may come or shall hereafter happen unto her, either by shipwreck, robbery, fyre; pyrats, & all dangers whatsoever els, & specially since her late depture from Boston in New England wthout his consent or privity thereunto, in the M^{o}. of August 1650^{ty}. ffor all wch uppon due proofe by the s^{d} John Jarvis made, yo^{u} shalbe lyable to make him just & due reparation in time & place convenient.

This protest was by me the Notary afores^{d} reade & published the day afores^{d} unto Edw. Bendall Att^{r}. for m^{r} Isaac Addington, in the p^{r}sence of m^{r} Edward Hutchinson & M^{r} W^{m} ffoster.

1. And the s^{d} Edw. Bendal returned answer thereunto as followeth. ffirst to severall untruths therein contained, he saith, he to wit Mr Jarvis knew of the voyage to Malaga from London, the s^{d} John Jarvis being then there: & also the s^{d} Jarvis knew of this last voyage to the Canaries & therefore should have spoken truth in his ptest. ffurther the s^{d} Att^{r} answ^{r}eth, that it is untrue that he hath beene put of from

Court to Court as the Records of the Court will declare, the Action being but entred in July & through his owne default not issued, when Mr Addington attended uppon the issue thereof. And this Court hath fully heard the Cause, & on the seventeenth of this instant are to give in theire Judgm^t^ in the Case. It is also untrue that he saith he desired to obtaine a true Account & could not: for Mr Addington & Edw. Bendall his Atturney tendred to Mr Jarvis to refer the Accounts to able men, both before the Court & since, as the Atturney affirmeth.

2^ly^. Secondly to the Substance of Mr Jarvis Allegation, he answ^r^eth, that Mr Addington long since in London & now againe in Court hath rendered him a true Acc^o^. of the Virginia Voyage, wch is all the Account that is due to him. ffor it appeared by Capt John Leveretts testimonie & sundry other circumstances (as that he neither tooke any care for fitting her out to sea, nor ptested against the Malaga Voyage though he knew thereof, & that Mr Jarvis himself confessed in Court, uppon certaine termes to have given order to the m^r^ for sale of the ship) that the s^d^ John Jarvis had sould his former interest, & himselfe saith in the begining of his protest, that London was the Port of Mr Addingtons discharge from the ship, & there Mr Addington gave him an Acc^o^. under his his hand, the very same wch hath now done & proved in Court: These are the answ^rs^ wch at present the Atturney gave, leaveing it to Mr Addington uppon knowledge of the same to returne more plenary answers. Thus done & passed in the towne of Boston by mee the Notary aforesaid. Quod virtute offciis mei rogatus atteso^r^ & in fra.

This ptest aforegoing I did also read unto Capt John Leveret the 13th day of this instant Decemb. Quod attester vt supra.

30 (10) 1650. Uppon the 30th day of Decemb^r 1650. Before mee Wm Aspinwall No^t & Tab: publ by Authority of the Gener^ll Court of the Massachusetts admitted & sworne, psonally appeared John Jarvis merch^t. & presented me this writing as followeth to declare unto Edw. Bendall Att^r to Mr Isaac Addington & to receive his answ^r, wch accordingly I did, The contents followe.

A reply to the prevaricating answer of Edw. Bendall unto a ptest against Isaac Addington & Capt John Leveret.

1. Whereas Edward Bendall answereth unto the ptest afores^d as to untruths, & saith in the first place, that John Jarvis knew of the voyage from London to Malago, as also (as he saith) of this last voyage to the Canaries; In answ^r to wch as touching the first voyage from London to Malago, as also her last voyage, as in the protest expressed, to the Canaries, John Jarvis saith they were both w^thout his consent or privity thereunto, therefore he speaketh truth in his ptest.

2. Whereas Edward Bendall saith that it is untrue that John Jarvis hath beene put of from Court to Court as the Records of the Court (as he saith) will declare. To wch I answer that sufficient testimony wilbe pduced to the contrary, as also from records of the Court, to prove what John Jarvis in his ptest hath spoken to be true & what Edward Bendall hath said to be untrue.

3. Whereas Edward Bendall answereth that John Jarvis desired to obtaine a true Account from Isaac

Addington & could not (as John Jarvis yet affirmeth) whereas the s^d Edw: Bendall saith that Isaac Addington long since in London & now here in Court hath rendred him a true Acc°. of the Virginia voyage, wch is untrue, for the Accounts p^r^sented in London as also here are not true nor just as will evidently be made so to appeare.

4. Whereas Edw. Bendall saith that the Acc°. of the Virginia voyage was all the Accounts that were due unto John Jarvis, the wch is false & untrue, for John Jarvis ought to have had an Acc°. of his third of the ship in case shee were any wayes sould, as the pties uppon groundles testimonies & circumstances doe alledge.

5. Whereas Edw. Bendall saith, that John Jarvis tooke no care for fitting of her out to sea, it will appeare that Isaac Addington tooke up an hundd pounds for his use at Bottomary, for the wch money John Jarvis hath underwritten as taken up by Isaac Addington for the use of his third pt of the Unicorne.

6. Whereas Edw. Bendall saith that by vertue of an order given the M^r^ for sale of the shipp, that John Jarvis had sould his interest in her, it is false & untrue. ffor John Jarvis never assented to any such sale as they say they had made of her.

7. Whereas Ed: Bendall saith that John Jarvis saith in the begining of his ptest that London was the Port of Mr Addingtons discharge from the shipp, it is also false & untrue, for the s^d^ John Jarvis there declareth that London was the port of his discharge, that is, of the voyage from Virginia, & there he was to give a true & just account, unto his owners, wch he hath not done, as it will evidently be made so to appeare.

8. Whereas Edw. Bendall saith that at London Mr Addington gave John Jarvis an Account under his hand, the very same wch he hath now done, & proved in Court as he saith, Although the Accounts given by him in London wch proved here to be his, wch Accounts are not true & just: all wch will evidently be made to appeare.

Edw. Bendalls Answer followeth.

1. To the article he saith, Mr Addingtons designe for Malago was publickly spoken of uppon the Exchange & therefore unlike Mr Jarvis should be ignorant.
Besides Mr Jarvis in his 5th Article saith he underwritt for Bottomary for his pt of the shipp, & therefore could not be ignorant: But he doubts of the truth of such underwriteing vnles padventure he writ that he never meant to pay.
And for the voyage to Canaries it was publickly knowne throughout the towne & therefore Mr Jarvis could not be ignorant as he pretends.

Digitized by Google

2. To the 2d. he saith, that the Records will evince that Mr Addington & Capt Leveret were not the cause of his putting of from Court to Court (as the ptest imports) but Mr Jarvis him selfe was the cause.

3. To the 3d he saith. that the Acco. as the Auditors brought it in, appeared to the Court & Jury to be just. Only the Atturney wanted his proofes to one pctr about the seamens wages: But since the Court one of those men came in, who can testify his receipt thereof.

4. To the 4th he saith, Mr Jarvis did not sue for his third pd of the shipp or Account of the same as sould by Isaac Addington, but for an Account of the voyages & imployments of a third pt wch he denyeth to be sould by any order of his, & therefore the Court & Jury could not find that wch was not comprized in the Action, but if Mr Addington have not Accounted already wth Mr Jarvis for the said third pt he makes no question but he will doe it wth out trouble or suite at lawe.

5. To the 5th he saith, no such thing was p ved in Court (nor that he remembers once pleaded) that Mr Jarvis underwrit for his pt of Bottomary in the malago voyage, nor doth he believe he did.

6. To the 6th he saith that Capt Leverett (then having a pt) uppon oath testified that both himselfe & Mr Jarvis gave order to the Mr to sell her & Mr Jarvis in Court acknowledged that he gave order to sell her though at a higher rate. And since the Court he understands from such as knew the shipp that shee was sould to her full worth or more.

7 To the 7th he needs no Answr. because though Mr Jarvis seem to deny yet at length confesseth the very words, only wth an explication & glosse that will not agree wth the text.

The Eight being pure non-sense he can give no answer to it.

This foregoeing Reply was showed by mee Wm Asp: Not & Tab: pub: unto Edw Bendall, & this Answr returned Quod. &c:

Stylo Angliq, At the request of Mr Thomas Bell Citizen of this Citty of London I John Marius Notary & Tabellion publick admitted & sworne dwelling wthin the same Citty, did shew & exhibit the originall bill of Exchang, whereof the Copie is here above written, Unto Mr James Kirke unto whom the same is directed in pson requesting him to accept the same, wch the sd James Kirk refused to doe, & gave me his reason in writeing, wch is word for word as followeth. The reason I accepted not this bill is, That Mr David Yale uppon the receipt of this Bill, did pmise to give satisfaction unto sd David Kirk of an Acco of goods wch Capt Chaplye dd him in N: England, & also Sugars & other goods dd him by Sd. David Kirk in the New found land, wch he faileing to doe is the Cause Sd. David gave no order for acceptance of sd Bill. James Kirke.

And therefore I the sd Notary did Solemnly ptest & doe ptest by these prsents (at the request aforesd) as well against Sd. David Kirk who hath subscribed the sd bill of Exchang, as all other that it doth or may concerne of Exchang & Rechang of all costs Damages & interests for want & refuseall of acceptation of the sd Bill suffered & susteined & hereafter to be suffered & susteined to be all recovered in time & place convenient. unto Capt John Leveret of Boston declaring unto him in the name of the afores^{d} Wm Stratton that the Bill aboves^{d} was not paid, & there fore at request as afores^{d} did ptest & by these p^{r}sents do ptest as well against the s^{d} Robert Houghton subscriber of the s^{d} Bill as any other in the s^{d} Bill bound for Exchang & Rechange & for all costs damages & interests wch the s^{d} Wm Stratton alreadie hath susteined or further may hereafter susteine through the Non — Delivery of the s^{d} quantity of fish according to Bill, to be all recovered in time & place convenient. In answ^{r} of wch protest, the s^{d} John Leveret gave me this returne under his hand Verbatim as followeth.

Mr Wm Aspinwall comeing to me wth a bill of Exchange uppon M^{r} ffrancis Norton of Charles towne & John Leveret of Boston for one hundd fifty foure Kint of fish for each to pay, charged by Mr Robert Houghton; My answer is, that for one hundd fourty nine Kintalls I charged bills uppon severall & sent to Mr Wm Stratton to whom the Bill was consigned, who acknowledgeth the receipt of the Bills, & p^{t} of the fish by them, & hath not returned mee the Bills for that wch is wanting. Also I answ^{r} a readiness & desire in mee to Comply wth Mr Stratton about the bills wch he wholely refuseth, & himselfe knoweth, that fish hath not beene to be pcured for money, This is my answ^{r} witnes my hand this 30th: June 1651.

John Leveret.

Whereunto Mr Wm Stratton replyed as followeth. ffor the bills I Delivered them to Mr Norton. & have no order to comply. 30th June 1651.

p me W^{m}. Stratton.

Thus done & passed in the towne of Boston this 30th day of June 1651. by me the Notary afores^{d}. Quod virtute offiicij mei &c:

ffurthermore at request afores^{d} I the Notary afores^{d} did repaire to Charls towne to the house of M^{r} ffrancis Norton & demanded whether Mr Norton was at home: Mrs Norton said he was to the Eastward. Then I shewed & read the originall bill & desired the payment thereof. Mrs Norton answered that Mr Houghton had taken of her husband & charged it wholy on Capt. Leveret, yet if her husband could have pcured fish he would have done it to his utmost. wch answ^{r} being given, I the Notary afores^{d} at request afores^{d} did ptest & by these pnts doe ptest as well against the afores^{d} Mr Houghton who subscribed the s^{d} Bill of Exchange as
